STATEMENT, PURSUANT TO 47 C.F.R. § 64.2009(e), OF

WHIDBEY TELEPHONE COMPANY ("COMPANY"),

ACCOMPANYING THE COMPANY'S COMPLIANCE CERTIFICATE, DATED FEBRUARY 28, 2008, PURSUANT TO 47 C.F.R. § 64.2009(e)

The Company has established policy that the Company, its employees and agents shall comply fully with all applicable Federal and state statutes, rules, regulations and orders pertaining to the use of, access to, and disclosure of Customer Proprietary Network Information ("CPNI"), as defined in Section 222 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. § 222, and by Section 64.2003 of the rules and regulations of the Federal Communications Commission ("Commission"), 47 C.F.R. § 64.2003, as such definitions have been clarified by the Commission, and as defined in applicable state law and/or rules and regulations. The Company's policy (and/or operating procedures) may impose restrictions on the use of, access to, and/or disclosure of CPNI that are more stringent than those required by Federal or state law, rule, regulation or order. Violation of such policy (and/or operating procedures) by any employee of the Company is grounds for discipline, up to and including termination of employment.

The Company's operating procedures in furtherance of its above-mentioned policy include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. The Company does not engage in any outbound telemarketing.
2. Outbound print marketing, if any, that may be distributed by the Company by mail is addressed to all subscribers or customers within the applicable geographic area, zip code(s) and/or telephone number prefix(es), without regard to the specific services that the subscriber or customer receives, or does not receive, from the Company and/or the Company's affiliates. Such mailings, if they occur, do not use any CPNI and are addressed to the subscriber's or customer's billing name and billing address.¹
3. None of the Company's affiliates is permitted to use any CPNI of the Company for any outbound telemarketing or outbound print marketing.
4. The Company does not use any CPNI for any inbound marketing of services that are not within a category of service (i.e., local, interexchange, and CMRS) to which the customer already subscribes from the Company and/or one or more of the Company's affiliates, unless the caller, having first been properly authenticated as person authorized to have access to the subject account, consents to the use of such CPNI for such purpose for the duration of such call in accordance with the procedures specified in Section 64.2008(f) of the Commission's rules.

5. The Company does not sell, or provide access to any third party to, any of the Company's CPNI for purposes of marketing the services of the Company or of any of its affiliates, other than as permitted with respect to the Company's affiliates pursuant to 4. above.
6. Except for CPNI made available to other telecommunications carriers pursuant to tariffed or detariffed billing and collection arrangements and billing and collection services provided pursuant thereto, the Company does not sell CPNI to any third-party for any purpose.
7. The Company, its employees and agents may make such other uses and disclosures of, and permit access to, CPNI as are permitted by applicable statute, rule, regulation or order. Such uses, disclosures or access may include those authorized by Section 222 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, by Section 64.2005 of the Commission's rules and by orders of the Commission, such as those pertaining to the authorized exchange of data among telecommunications carriers and preferred carrier freezes. The Company may disclose certain CPNI to third parties that provide services to the Company for uses authorized by Section 222 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, but the Company does not make such disclosure to independent contractors for marketing purposes.
8. Except as set forth above, the Company does not provide any individually identifiable CPNI to any governmental entity, or to any other third party (except the subscriber's agent), other than pursuant to subpoena or other lawful process or with the subscriber's prior written consent.
9. The Company does not disclose CPNI based on an in-store visit, customer-initiated telephone contact, or online access except in accordance with the following:²
 - (a) As a result of a person visiting a Company customer service center and presenting to the Company or the Company's agent a facially valid, government-issued photo ID matching the subscriber's account information for the relevant account; or
 - (b) As a result of a person initiating contact by telephone with a Company customer service center,³ in accordance with the following:

² The Company's practices and procedures with respect to the disclosure of CPNI based on an in-store visit, customer-initiated telephone contact, or online access are evolving. The description in this Item 9 describes those practices and procedures in effect on the date of the certification that this statement accompanies.

³ As used in this 9.(b), the terms "customer service center" and "customer service representative" also include certain Company representatives involved in the billing and/or collection of customer accounts.

(i) For CPNI consisting of "call detail information," as defined in 47 C.F.R. § 64.2003(d), in accordance with any one or more of the following:

(a) Upon (i) the person who is requesting "call detail information" identifying himself or herself to be the subscriber (or the subscriber's duly authorized agent), (ii) the Company's customer service representative confirming by the Company's records that the name furnished by such person is authorized to have access to the subject account and (iii) such person furnishing a pre-established password without being prompted by the Company's customer service representative asking for "readily available biographic information," as defined in 47 C.F.R. § 64.2003(m), or "account information," as defined in 47 C.F.R. § 2003(a); or

(b) Upon (i) the person who is requesting "call detail information" representing himself or herself to be the subscriber (or the subscriber's duly authorized agent) and providing the Company's customer service representative with appropriate identifying information (such as social security number or requested portion thereof, driver's license number, or mother's maiden name) and (ii) the Company's customer service representative confirming by the Company's records that the name furnished by such person is authorized to have access to the subject account, by then either (1) calling such person back at the telephone number to which the relevant "call detail information" pertains or at the lead telephone number (for billing purposes) of the telephone number to which the relevant "call detail information" pertains, or (2) by sending the requested "call detail information" to the subscriber's address of record ; or

(c) If the person who is requesting "call detail information" does not furnish a pre-established password without being prompted by the Company's customer service representative asking for "readily available biographic information," as defined in 47 C.F.R. § 64.2003(m), or "account information," as defined in 47 C.F.R. § 2003(a), but (i) does identify himself or herself in accordance with subparagraph (b) immediately preceding, including the Company's customer service representative confirming by the Company's records that the name furnished by such person is authorized to have access to the subject account, and (ii) supplies all of the "call detail information" necessary for the Company's customer service representative to respond to such person's inquiry, without divulging any additional "call detail information" or other CPNI, by responding to such person's inquiry without divulging any additional "call detail information;" or

(d) If the person who is requesting "call detail information" represents himself or herself to be the authorized agent of a business customer, but the Company's customer service representative (i) is unable to confirm by the Company's records that a person so named is an authorized agent of the business customer, or (ii) is unable to confirm such person's identity by the Company's records because of an absence from those records of pertinent identifying information (such as social security number or designated portion thereof, driver's license number, or mother's maiden name), or such person is unable to provide a pre-established password without being prompted by the Company's customer service representative asking for "readily available biographic information," as defined in 47.C.F.R.. § 64.2003(m), or "account information," as defined in 47 C.F.R. § 2003(a), then by sending the requested "call detail information" to the subscriber's address of record ;

(ii) For CPNI consisting of other than "call detail information," as defined in 47 C.F.R. § 64.2003(d), in accordance with one or more of the following:

(a) Upon the person representing himself or herself to be the subscriber (or the subscriber's duly authorized agent) and providing the Company's customer service representative with appropriate identifying information (such as social security number or requested portion thereof, driver's license number, or mother's maiden name) and the

Company's customer service representative confirming by the Company's records that the name furnished by the caller is authorized to have access to the subject account; or

(b) If the person represents himself or herself to be the authorized agent of a business customer, but the Company (i) is unable to confirm by its records that a person so named is an authorized agent of the business customer, or (ii) is unable to confirm the person's identity by its records because of an absence from its records of pertinent identifying information (such as social security number or designated portion thereof, driver's license number, or mother's maiden name), then by sending the requested CPNI to the subscriber's address of record; or

(c) As a result of the person establishing an online, e-billing account with the Company or with an affiliate of the Company that performs billing on the Company's behalf, in accordance with procedures prescribed by the Company or such billing affiliate, and the said e-billing account being accessed by means of the user name and password⁴ associated with that e-billing account being correctly input into the online e-billing system.

10. Company personnel are trained as to when they are and are not authorized to use CPNI.

11. In the event of a breach of any customer's CPNI, the procedures set forth in 47 C.F.R. § 64.2011 are to be observed. As used in this Item 11, a "breach" has occurred when a person, without authorization or exceeding authorization, has intentionally gained access to, used, or disclosed CPNI.

12. Customers are to be notified whenever a password, customer response to a back-up means of authentication for lost or forgotten passwords, online account, or address of record is created or changed.⁵ This notification may be through a Company-originated voicemail or text message to the telephone number of record, or by mail to the address of record, but is not to reveal the changed information or be sent to the new account information.

⁴ With respect to authentication procedures applicable to online, e-billing accounts, see Note 5 below.

During the calendar year ended December 31, 2007, the Company did not take any action against any data broker in connection with access to CPNI.

During the calendar year ended December 31, 2007, the Company did not receive any customer complaints concerning the unauthorized release of CPNI, except as follows:

During 2007, the Company received a complaint alleging that the Company had released a copy of a subscriber's invoice for telecommunications services without the subscriber's authorization. The complaint was made during an in-store visit, but the complaining subscriber was unwilling to provide the Company's representative with sufficient information to permit the Company to investigate the alleged incident. The subscriber did show the Company's representative, albeit only briefly, a copy of the invoice that allegedly had been disclosed without authorization. The Company's representative recognized the form of the invoice as being a form that had been used by the Company prior to 2007, but was not permitted sufficient time to obtain any other information from the invoice, such as the telephone number to which the invoice pertained or the date of the invoice.

The allegedly unauthorized disclosure allegedly resulted in a copy of the subject invoice appearing in court records.

The subscriber threatened to pursue legal action relating to the alleged incident, but the Company is unaware of any such legal action having been commenced as of the date of the certification that this statement accompanies.

The Company's ability to investigate the alleged incident was limited by a lack of subscriber cooperation.
